“Nothing better than a worry free and relaxing holiday in Italy with my personal travel guide & concierge” A. E.

*A.E, a lovely American lady was invited to attend an event at Lake Como. It was her first time to Italy, travelling alone and wanted to offer herself an enjoyable stay also visiting the surroundings. Time was short; I guided her on a walking tour in Milan, followed her shopping and booked a personal car service. When we said goodbye, A. E. was pleased with her worry free holiday and looking forward to be back for a longer stay touring Italy. See you then.
Thank you.*
